Pastor Speaks

"BY THE FAITH OF GOD"

One of the boldest statements ever made on the subject of faith was made by Jesus Christ to Peter after Peter pointed out to the Lord the withered fig tree. Jesus said, "Have faith in God." Mark 11:22. A more literal translation, "Have the faith of God."

Paul re-echoed these words of our Lord to the Galatians, "I am crucified with Christ; nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son of God . . ." Gal. 2:20. Again Paul said, "Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ . . ." Gal. 2:16

Paul is saying that faith has its origin in God and it comes to man by hearing the Word of God. So faith is God's gift to man, It is now how much faith we have, but how much we believe that the faith of God can provide all our need.

The Lord framed the worlds by faith and they are kept in store by His faith. Second Peter 3:5-7. When God created the universe, He spoke, it was so, and it was good. When the disciples were facing the prospect of persecution and suffering they pleaded with the Lord, "Increase our faith." But the Lord said it is not more faith you need, "for if you had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say (speak) unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you." Luke 17:5,6.

It was not more faith they needed, but more capacity to receive what God's faith was able to give. Jesus said, "If thou canst believe (receive) all things are possible to him that believeth (receiveth)." Is that possible? "Therefore, I say unto you, what things soever ye desire when ye pray (ask) believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them." That is, live as if that which you asked already taken place.

God's faith provided, our faith receives. Our faith ask, God's faith gives. Our faith is pregnable, God's faith is impregnable.

"Have the faith of God."

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

WHO IS A PROPHET?

Lesson for April 18, 1971

Background Scripture: Isaiah 6: 1-8; Jeremiah 18:18; Hosea 1:1; 8: 1-3, Amos 1:1; 3: 1-8; 7: 1-15; Micah 3: 5-8; Hebrews 1: 1-2; 2 Peter 1:20, 21. Devotional Reading: Jeremiah 1: 4-12.

No prophet was ever admired or valued – except posthumously. A living prophet wins no popularity contests. No one ever hears a prophet and tells him that they "liked" his sermon (unless they didn't really understand him.) Celebrated when they are dead and gone, prophets know little else than rejection in life.

Though many of us are quite "up" in knowing who were the prophets, we are not nearly so perceptive in deciding who are the prophets among us today, This is not a new phenomenon, for men have always had this difficulty, who is a prophet?

Man Like Amos

Perhaps one of the best approaches to answering that question is to take a good look at some of the prophets of the past whom we can identify. Perhaps they can tell us what to look for. There's Amos, for example. Although in his own day he was rejected by most who heard him, today we recognize that he was a prophet. One mark of his role as prophet was his commission to speak for God to the people about the sins of the nation: "Hear this word that the Lord has spoken against you, O people of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up out of the land of Egypt . . ." Therefore, I will punish you for all your iniquities" (Amos 3:2). is obedient to God's will. Such a man was Isaiah. In Isaiah 6 we find that he is a man who was aware of his sin before God. But the Lord overcame these feelings of inferiority with the promise of his help. Isaiah did not seek the prophet's mantle; it sought him. Thus, not because he looked forward to being a prophet, but because he wanted to be obedient, he answered: "Here I am! Send me!"

Even more reluctant had been Jeremiah who, when he was called by the Lord, protested: "Ah, Lord God! Behold, I do not know how to speak, for I am only a youth" (Jeremiah 1:6). But God told him that as a prophet his confidence was not to be in his own adequacy, but in the help which the Lord would give him: "Be not afraid of them, for I am with you to deliver you, says

In Micah we find that the prophet is not. The Lord concerned to lead my people in 'Peace' when the thing to eat and not a man to chew. His Special task to probe into our lonesses, our sinful phet who tells us worry, that "no fine!", is not
